

BUNKER HILL PEDWAYS - LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

CLIENT: City of Los Angeles
COMPLETION: 1974

DESCRIPTION: This is comprehensive pedestrian network is part of a major downtown revitalization project for Los Angeles, designed to link together the major buildings and parks with bridges and foot paths lifted above vehicular traffic. The pedway system, which connects major civic and office buildings, is a vital element in making the city a place for people.

ROLE: As former Corporate Director of Design for DMJM, Anthony Lumsden was the Design Architect of this project.
STATUS: Project is built.